ALL-GROUP A.A. MEETING MOVES TO SANTA ANA EBELL CLUB....

Due to circumstances beyond our control, we were unable to get the regular meeting place, St. Callistus Church Auditorium for the monthly Intergroup All-Group A.A. Meeting scheduled for May 2.

With the help of Vic W., Hank W., and our Higher Power we obtained the Santa Ana Ebell Club for our regular monthly meetings. Since the new place is more centrally located we decided to hold all meetings there in the future.

The Santa Ana Ebell Club is located at 625 French Street, Santa Ana. The new time will be 8:30 P.M. instead of 8 P.M.

At this time we wish to thank Father Gallagher, George and Betty A. for their cooperation and assistance during our 4 months at St. Callistus.

The Orange-Tustin Group will host the May 2nd meeting with Dick W. as the guest speaker.....Bill B. (Chairman Orange County Intergroup)

THE MEETING

IS THE

KEY

AA

In a few postwar years a Churchill can turn out five volumes of magnificent history while carrying on a heavy program in Parliament and painting credible pictures at Chartwell. Another man lives the life of a recluse and after his death from malnutrition the police find a large fortune in his shabby apartment. The human mind can rise to great heights or it can be twisted into frightening shapes.

Something had happened to our minds, else we wouldn't have drunk and acted as we did. Our process of recovery requires a healing of the mind as well as of the body. Physical sobriety can come quickly and in many cases is achieved upon first contact with AA. Mental sobriety usually takes much longer. This should not surprise us for the treatment of mental conditions is usually a long, drawn out process compared with the rather brief hospitalization for most physical surgery. The danger to the newcomer is that his physical sobriety may deceive him and lull him into complacency. Like the miser he does not realize how far he has strayed from reality, how twisted his thinking still is.

So often do we hear in meetings, "You have to change your thinking". Most AAs who have been sober for a reasonable period see a gradual change in their own thought processes, the acceptance today of principles and conclusions that seemed anathema a month or a year ago. Hence we might admit, "Anything I say is strictly my own opinion—today! Next week or next year I may have different views." It is inevitable that our thinking must change and develop if we are to grow and progress in AA.

Our thinking changes through the technique of the meetings. We are indeed fortunate that the meeting came to be the principal channel for the AA message. AA did not necessarily have to take that form.

It might have become a $50 correspondence course. Or a consulting service at $5.00 a visit and then training courses that would produce other licensed consultants. But the founders decided against such methods and somehow the meeting assumed its present important place in the program.

In a large measure the meeting is the key to AA's phenomenal and unexpected success. The meeting is a much more effective persuader and convincer than a book or pamphlet. It is practically impossible to learn to swim by reading a book or to drive a car, run a large corporation, converse fluently in a modern language. You have to get into the water, sit behind the wheel, beat your way up the economical ladder, live among foreigners and listen to the music of their inflection and cadence. AA is like that in many respects. The meeting has a two-fold effect upon those who attend with an open mind and the right attitude. First of all it makes a direct intellectual appeal. The AA member sits in the audience and listens. He is not on the psychiatrist's couch and does not have to say a word. He can admit anything and everything to himself but he need not tell anyone in the world about it. At least not tonight. He may agree with the speaker or think silently to himself, "That's the bunk. It is really like this..." In his act of agreement or disagreement he is beginning to think creatively about alcohol, himself and AA. His process of mental recovery is under way.

Over a series of meetings cases are cited, principles enunciated, philosophies evolved. Clashes of opinion may occur but they are provocative of thought. Which of the two views is correct? An answer may occupy a member for days but during that period he will be thinking in a way and in an area completely new to him. His errors, prejudices, resentments fade and shrivel in the light of group therapy. It is the action of mind upon mind in the meetings, open or closed, that provides the mental exercise and experienced guidance which the fogged mind needs for recovery.

The great contribution of the meeting, however, is probably not intellectual at all. It is more indirect, more subtle. The late Justice Brandeis once said that he was convinced that good health was contagious just as disease was contagious. Surely conditions of the mind are even more contagious than those of the body. We know how moods, gloom, laughter are contagious. Someone asks you, "What is the name of that tall man?" You 'catch' forgetfulness and cannot recall a name that is on the tip of your tongue. Mental sobriety, too, is contagious and can be contracted at an AA meeting. The new member whose thinking is twisted is thrown in with others well along the road to recovery. He somehow "catches on" just as a boy "gets the hang" of swimming by splashing around in water with companions who can swim.

It is difficult to define mental sobriety, though you can recognize it when you see it. It includes a solid grounding in AA, a sane outlook on life, a reasonable amount of serenity, and in fact a fair share of all the fruits of the AA program. It can be had at the AA meeting and it is one more testimonial to the truth of the statement, "The best things in life are free."

Answer The Call!

WHAT PRICE SOBRIETY? YOU RANG? WE DID INDEED, DID YOU ANSWER THE CALL? IF YOU CAN'T SEND A BUCK, AT LEAST SAY "HELLO"!

Not many of us would care to put a price tag on our sobriety. Few of us could, even less of us would.

Unfortunately, sobriety is not for sale. It is, however, a marketable item and Alcoholics Anonymous is the sole distributor. We all know sobriety isn't sold; it is given away in unlimited quantities to whoever honestly wants it.

We have an excellent sobriety manufacturing facility here in Orange County. Comprised of over 70 groups, it grinds out thousands of 24 hour periods of sobriety every day. The production capacity increases with every 12th step call. But in order to operate at full capacity we must market all we produce. simple economics.

The Orange County Central Office is the focal point of our marketing organization and unhappily it requires a few bucks to run it, even when we give our product away. A conservative estimate indicates that there are about 1,500 A.A. members in Orange County. One dollar per month per member would give us a comfortably solvent Central Office and put a sizeable dent in the operating costs of the New York World Service Office.

If sobriety were an item we could bottle up, set on a shelf with a price, any price it would be a red hot item down at White Front. To date, sobriety is not for sale, but it can be bought... FOR SOMEONE ELSE. The price is the same as one bottle of wine per month or one six pack of beer. A small price to pay for the sobriety of someone who still suffers and its not a bad group insurance contribution...Bill T.

MY LIFE IN AL-ANON IS A PLEASURE.....

"I drifted through a tormented existence before I found Al-Anon. My father was an alcoholic, so I had a very early start becoming a nothing. Without a mother or any schooling, I was quite confused by the time I married, early in my teens. Since the guy I married was well on his drinking way, I was well on my way to the insane life I led. Insane, stupid, mixed up, anything you like, I was. They haven't found a word to fit what I was like. To top it off I had self-pity, fears, worry and temper; these are just a few. By the time I found Al-Anon, I was ready and willing.

Most of these things are in the past now. I was so desperate when Al-Anon came into my life it had to be my answer and it was. Finding my Higher Power gave me life, new excitement and a warm glow; I could feel my heart being educated and my twisted mind thinking straight again. This was the beginning of my new life with Al-Anon and my God. I'm learning many things now on how to live and be happy; how to love for free, without strings attached, just for fun, without expecting anything in return.

Gratitude is at the top of my list. Each lesson I learn, one day at a time, I find more to be grateful for. The next thing on my list that I've learned is how to turn things over to God, how to let go absolutely. When my Higher Power is running my life this releases me to be free to receive the serenity to do the things necessary to educate my heart and grow along spiritual lines.

I have many things yet to learn, a long way to go. But now I know I can enjoy life while learning. Living a day at a time is so much easier than living a lifetime in a day. Once in my life there was no laughter, only tears. Now laughter and smiles are a part of me. Add the light touch, keep it simple and life can be fun. Just for today I have a god to guide me, a family that's fun, many friends to love and enjoy. There have

" ABOUT PROFANITY "

A great number of AA members when speaking and telling of the drunken past, undoubtedly feel the need to punctuate their talks and sprinkle the conversation with profanity. In our new way of life we need to strive to clean up our conversation as well as our lives and thoughts. Someone wrote the following reasons why they curse:

1. It pleases my Mother.
2. It is a fine mark of manliness.
3. It proves I have self control.
4. It indicates how clearly my mind operates.

5. It makes my conversation so pleasing to everybody.
6. It leaves no doubt in anyone's mind as to my good breeding.
7. It impresses people that I have more than an ordinary education.
8. It makes an unmistakable sign of culture and refinement.
9. It makes me a very desirable personality among women, children, and respectable society.
10. It is my way of honoring God.

One of the things we alcoholics are trying to do is regain the respect of others. There is no better way to start than to clean up our conversation.

.....The Questers Bulletin..Chino, Cal.

PERSONALITY

A healthy personality doesn't mean a "perfect" person, one without problems who is never disturbed by any emotions. It is not a person who is "well adjusted", as we like to say, measuring someone who accepts whatever exists and has no criticism of present day society. The Healthy Personality- as I see it- recognizes and faces the life tasks and problems that come before him. He copes with these tasks self-confident and courageous, and with generosity and respect for others, he responds with feelings that are appropriate to his stage of development, he carries into the future a minimum of "unfinished business" and dated emotions" from childhood.

" WHAT DID YOU DO TODAY? "

So you've been around for many years, helping to spread A.A.

You've worked like hell since you first came in, but

WHAT DID YOU DO TODAY?

I heard your pitch, it was kind of long, you really told them how

You worked the steps in 41, but

HOW ARE YOU WORKING THEM NOW?

Do you still get up from your soft, warm bed when someone is in trouble?

Do you grab your hat and your A.A. book and get there on the double?

Or have you forgotten the early times when you were sort of new,

Maybe you've been around so long that A.A. is old hat to you.

Maybe you're one of the Senior Saints, sober and satisfied,

And you've forgotten when you were sick and when you damn near died?

Maybe I shouldn't bring it up, maybe you're too blase,

But just for the hell of it, Mister, what did you do today?

Have you been around so cock-eyed long you leave it to Harry or Sam,

'Cause you're not your brother's keeper and you don't give a damn?

Maybe tonight the fights are on or you're going to the old ball game,

So what the hell, if the guy is sick, he has only himself to blame.

Well, Mister, you have a perfect right to work your own A.A.

And you know you'll do it your way, no matter what I say.

But, tonight, before you go to bed, just look in the glass and pray

That you and the Lord know the answer to " WHAT DID YOU DO TODAY? "

THE TWELVE TRADITIONS

Our Group Experience Suggests That....

1. Our common welfare should come first; personal recovery depends upon A.A. unity.
2. For our group purpose there is but one ultimate authority, a loving God as He may express Himself in our Group Conscience. Our leaders are but trusted servants....they do not govern.
3. The only requirement for AA membership is a desire to stop drinking.
4. Each Group should be autonomous, except in matters affecting other Groups or AA as a whole.
5. Each Group has but one primary purpose...to carry its message to the alcoholic who still suffers.
6. An AA Group ought never endorse, finance or lend the AA name to any related facility or outside enterprise lest problems of money, property and prestige divert us from our primary spiritual aim.
7. Every AA Group ought to be self-supporting; declining outside contributions.
8. Alcoholics Anonymous should remain forever nonprofessional, but our service centers may employ special workers.
9. AA, as such, ought never be organized but we may create service boards or committees directly responsible to those they serve.
10. Alcoholics Anonymous has no opinion on outside issues; hence the AA name ought never be drawn into public controversy.
11. Our public relations policy is based on attraction rather than promotion; we need always maintain personal anonymity at the level of press, radio, films and TV.
12. Anonymity is the spiritual foundation of all our Traditions, ever reminding us to place principles above personalities.

" The aim of our services is to bring sobriety within reach of all who want it. The Traditions of A.A. disclose a society without organization, animated only by the spirit of service- a true fellowship."

- Bill W.

THE TWELVE STEPS

1. We admitted we were powerless over alcohol- that our lives had become unmanageable.
2. Came to believe that a Power greater than ourselves could restore us to sanity.
3. Made a decision to turn our will and our lives over to the care of God as we understood Him.
4. Made a searching and fearless moral inventory of ourselves.
5. Admitted to God, to ourselves, and to another human being the exact nature of our wrongs.
6. Were entirely ready to have God remove all these defects of character.
7. Humbly asked Him to remove our shortcomings.
8. Made a list of all persons we had harmed, and became willing to make amends to them all.
9. Made direct amends to such people, wherever possible, except when to do so would injure them or others.
10. Continued to take personal inventory and when we were wrong, promptly admitted it.
11. Sought through prayer and meditation to improve our conscious contact with God as we understood Him, praying only for knowledge of His will for us, and the power to carry that out.
12. Having had a spiritual awakening as the result of these steps, we tried to carry this message to alcoholics and to practice these principles in all our affairs.
