VOL. IV.

ORANGE COUNTY, CAL. - NOVEMBER 1966

NO. 8.

ELECTION... ..

The Orange County Intergroup Association will select three members to the Central Service Board, at the next regular meeting WEDNESDAY- November 30th, 8:00 P.M. at the Lincoln Savings and Loan Building, 17th & Bristol Sts., Santa Ana.

It is of great importance that your group be represented in this election. It is also important that the people selected will be able to have the time to devote to the work that has to be done if we are to do a successful job of handling the business of A.A. in Orange County.

At the October meeting of the Service Board Harry M. resigned, and Dean H. of Fullerton was appointed to fill out his term of office. Ed S. was then elected as the new Chairman of the Board. Olin D. was retained to handle the office from 4 to 8 P.M. Monday thru Friday - and 9 to 1 P.M. Saturdays. - thereby increasing the phone coverage 20 hours per week. From the number of calls received the move has proved to be a most needed and helpful one.

REMEMBER! THE MEETING IS ON WEDNESDAY - NOVEMBER 30TH- 8 P.M.

IMPORTANT!!! SPECIAL NOTICE!!!! DUE TO ILLNESS

"Remember — no resentments!"

G.S.O.

TRADITIONS STEER A.A.'S COURSE SINCE 1946

Thousands upon thousands have written G.S.O. about Group problems— and in 95 per cent of the cases of A.A.'s 12 Traditions. Since the Traditions were first proposed by Bill W. 20 years ago, and accepted formally by the movement (as the Second Legacy—Unity)— in Cleveland in 1950 they have been woven into the rich fabric of A.A. life so well that nowadays they are as useful as the 12 Steps (the First Legacy—Recovery), many members agree, and it would take a major A.A. revolution to change any of them.

COULD A.A. DIE?

If wholesale violation of any of them ever occurred, according to one A.A. historian A.A. would perish forever— just as the Washingtonian and Catch-A-Pal movements did before A.A.'s time.

A quick survey of the most common questions we are asked shows these are among the least understood of the Traditions:

NO.7.(Each Group self-supporting).

We are frequently asked about a Group's soliciting or accepting funds from industry, or the public.

NO.5. (primary purpose is to carry the message) and NO.6.(no endorsement, financing, or lending of A.A.name to outside enterprises). Many book publishers want our "endorsement," and many institutions would like to claim they are "endorsed by A.A.." There are no such things as "A.A. hospitals, farms, club-houses, or retreats"— although of course many A.A. members cooperate in such worthy enterprises.

NO.10.(staying out of public controversy and legal disputes). Many lawmakers want A.A. on their side in political debates. Some professional alcoholism scientists want A.A. approval of their theories and therapies. Even when many think these are all good things, A.A. has found it pays not to get on one side or the other in such matters, but just stick to carrying A.A.'s message.

NO.2.(Group conscience is our only authority), and NO. 12. ("principles before personalities"). Most Group disoutes and arguments yield to the wisdom of these Traditions. A.A. harmony (NO.1.) seems to be too important for us to let it die.

The biggest miracle of all, is that BY FAR MOST A.A. MEMBERS ALWAYS OBSERVE THE TRADITIONS SCRUPULOUSLY, EVEN WITHOUT KNOWING IT!

Look at each one, and decide for yourself— during November, Traditions Month—where AA and you— would be if there were no TRADITIONS.

IT'S MIAMI IN '70!

It's still a few 24 hours away, but A.A.'s can begin planning right now to join in the Fellowship's great 35th Anniversary Year International Convention in Miami, Florida U.S.A. in 1970.

Delegates at the 1966 G.S. Conference unanimously favored the famous resort city, and the Convention Committee has made it official. Details on reservations will come in plenty of time—but we've tracked down this much for you: average high temperature at convention time will be 86o, with average low at 77o.

Nobody who was in Cleveland in '50, St. Louis in '55, Long Beach in '60 or Toronto in '65 needs to be told about the place of International Conventions in A.A.life.

REMEMBER! 25¢ WORTH OF RESPONSIBILITY WILL BUY YOUR SHARE OF AA'S FUTURE!

Our experience has taught us'-

One Our common welfare should come first; personal recovery depends upon AA unity.

Two For our group purpose there is but one ultimate authority . . . a loving God as He may express Himself in our group conscience. Our leaders are but trusted servants . . . they do not govern.

Three The only requirement for AA membership is a desire to stop drinking.

Four Each group should be autonomous except in matters affecting other groups or AA as a whole.

Five Each group has but one primary purpose . . . to carry its message to the alcoholic who still suffers.

Six An AA group ought never endorse, finance or lend the AA name to any related facility or outside enterprise, lest problems of money, property and prestige divert us from our primary purpose.

Seven Every AA group ought to be fully self-supporting, declining outside contributions.

Eight Alcoholics Anonymous should remain forever non-professional, but our service centers may employ special workers.

Nine AA, as such, ought never be organized; but we may create service boards or committees directly responsible to those they serve.

Ten Alcoholics Anonymous has no opinion on outside issues; hence the AA name ought never be drawn into public controversy.

Eleven Our public relations policy is based on attraction rather than promotion; we need always maintain personal anonymity at the level of press, radio and films.

Twelve Anonymity is the spiritual foundation of all our Traditions, ever reminding us to place principles before personalities.

FOR THESE THY GIFTS...

I AM THANKFUL
to be released from alcohol,
BUT I AM MORE THANKFUL
to be bound by the responsibilities of sobriety.

I AM THANKFUL
to be bound by the responsibilities of
sobriety,
BUT I AM MORE THANKFUL
for the returning possession of my own sanity.

I AM THANKFUL
for the possession of a little sanity,
BUT I AM MORE THANKFUL
for the hope of an eventual and infinite peace of mind.

I AM THANKFUL
to turn my back on despair,
BUT I AM MORE THANKFUL
to turn my face toward hope.
I AM THANKFUL
to be free from the undefined fears with which I travelled dark yesterdays,
BUT I AM MORE THANKFUL
to walk in the shadow of known fears today.
I AM THANKFUL
to be concerned about my honesty
BUT I AM MORE THANKFUL

to be honest with myself about my dishonesty.
I AM THANKFUL
to shed the prickly cloak of my resentments,
BUT I AM MORE THANKFUL
to take on the warm mantle of gratitude.
I AM THANKFUL
to lose my cankerous and cantankerous jealousy of the gift of others,
BUT I AM MORE THANKFUL
to gain a free and glowing appreciation of those gifts.

I AM THANKFUL
to be released from the spiteful envy of the talents of others,
BUT I AM MORE THANKFUL
to be desirous of even meagerly emulating those virtues.

I AM THANKFUL
to be divorced from the complex and insecure dissemblings of deceit,
BUT I AM MORE THANKFUL
to be encumbered by the simple and secure demands of truth.

I AM THANKFUL
to be unfettered from the pain of pride,
BUT I AM MORE THANKFUL
to walk straight in humility.
I AM THANKFUL
to silence the voice of the braggart in my wishful thought,
BUT I AM MORE THANKFUL
to speak the value of a proper worth in my secret soul.

I AM THANKFUL
to be freed from an insecure sense of personal inadequacy,
BUT I AM MORE THANKFUL
for a proper sense of self-reliance.
