REPORT ON 36TH ORANGE CO ANNIVERSARY MEETING.....

The 36th Annual Anniversary of AA in Orange County was held Sunday, Aug. 21 at the Tustin Civic Center, and there were approximately 450 in attendance. Our planned main speaker, Cliff W. of Whittier was unable to attend due to illness. However Claude W. with 29 years sobriety led the meeting and the following participants shared their experiences of AA in its early years. Tex R., 29 years, lone B., 29 years, Don G., 28 years, Otis W., 34 years, Jeanne T., 29 years, and Wayne S., 36 years, a combined total of 214 years of sobriety earned "One Day at a Time". Thank you for your sobriety, your leadership and your love of AA. I also wish to thank the many hosts and hostesses, the refreshment committee for a fantastic supply of goodies, the fellows who set up the meeting room and the cleanup crew, the coffee makers and the sound and taping crew, and my special thanks to all those wonderful folk who baked cakes, cookies and made such great sandwiches. Thank you all.

.....JoAnne A., Chairman Special Events.
Financial report respectfully submitted.

INTERGROUP HILIGHTS.....

Several very important issues were discussed at the September meeting. First the report of the upcoming So. Cal. Convention by Chris M. asking for volunteers to act as ushers and hostesses. If you care to participate, call C.O. Also Chris announced that the final convention planning meeting will be held Sun. 1 P.M. at the Queen Mary. Everyone is urged to attend.

Dick W., Central Office Chairman, announced that with the resignation of Jack M. as Office Manager, Nov. 1st, Colleen C. from San Diego has been accepted as the most qualified for the position. She is at present the manager of the San Diego C.O.

Dick also announced that several pieces of new Spanish literature was now available at C.O.: "Living Sober", "A.A. Comes of Age" and the 20 Questions. Special thanks was given to Ira Y. for the work he did at the office in making the tables more easily used in mailing out Lifeline.

It was reported that the picnic was a great success with an attendance of approximately 600 people.

John C., asked for help in getting more subscriptions for Lifeline. Also asked for contributions- experiences- any thoughts that could be used in the newspaper itself.

NOMINATIONS.....

October is nominations month with November election month. Nominations will be made for 5 members of the Service Board. One year's sobriety is required, with some Intergroup experience.

A motion was made to delete the Al-Anon Directory from the present AA Directory as of January 1. The groups are asked to consider this and it will be voted on in November. It was explained that there is a problem of space in the present form. Also Al-Anon now has its own newspaper which comes out once a month.

FRESH

The following topics for the next meeting, October 25th at Central Office. 8 P.M.:

- 1) Does listing speakers in Lifeline put an undue emphasis on personalities?
  - 2) Do we have anything to learn from the long form of the Traditions?
  - 3) What should be the criteria for listing a meeting in the Orange County Directory?
  - 4) Topics suggested by the attendees.
- Lois W. will lead the meeting.
.....Cindy K., Secretary.

ELECTION

On Sunday, October 9, 1977-10:00 AM, at the Community Recreation Center, 8150 Knott Ave., Buena Park, the Mid-Southern California Area will elect a new slate of officers to serve for the next two years.

"Because the delegate goes on a trip, gets to see G.S.O., and helps make worldwide decisions, his has become the golden assignment. Whether this is true or not does not really matter. The picture attracts some very capable A.A.s and exacts a great of work from them." (Service Manual pg. 54.)

Those eligible for election to these positions are the Alternate Delegate, Area Chairman, Area Treasurer, Area Secretary, all District Committeemembers, all Intergroup Chairmen, immediate past District Committeemembers, and the Institutional Directors within the Mid-So. Calif. Area.

Those eligible to vote at the election Assembly are the groups' General Service Representatives (G.S.R.s). There will be no nominations from the floor and third legacy procedures will be used.

If you have never attended a General Service Assembly election, we urge you to do so. There are approximately 35 A.A.s eligible for election and I hope they are able to stay in nomination. So if your group has a conscience and a GSR, send them to Buena Park in October to elect your service committee.

On the agenda for October, if time permits after the election the area committee will discuss the forming of a committee for Cooperation With The Professional Community (C.P.C.). Recent information from the State of California "Office of Alcoholism" seems to indicate a need for such a committee.

Cecil C., General Service Trustee from Canada, will be the main speaker for the General Service Meeting at the Southern Calif. Convention in Long Beach. Ron W. of Westminster will give a short talk on the concepts and Janice P. from Huntington Beach will talk about the role of the G.S.R. We have prime time for people who like to get up early... 8:00 A.M., Saturday... Don't miss this one!!! ..... Jerry F., Delegate.

ARE YOU

1. Lacking in self-criticism?
2. Selfish?
3. Suffering from false pride?
4. Impatient?
5. Resentful?
6. Suffering from fits of temper and ill humor?
7. Cross and irritable at home and at work?
8. Lacking in common, everyday honesty with yourself and others (this does not necessarily mean stealing)?
9. Criticizing others?
10. Alibiing every chance possible to cover your defects and failures?
11. Lacking in faith in someone, the group or a Power greater than ourselves?
12. Lacking in tolerance?
13. Putting off until tomorrow what should be done today?
14. Casting around trying to make decisions, unable to decide one way or the other?
15. Pitying yourself, your condition in life brought about by your own making?
16. Attempting to escape from the reality and responsibilities of life?
17. Insincere, making promises, pretending interest in others you do not feel?
18. Egotistical? Feeling your own self-importance?
19. Self-centered? Having no thought of anyone or anything outside of your own precious hide?
20. Conceited? Thinking you are "it"?
21. Vain? Spending time before your mirror admiring yourself, failing to look

Take A Moral Inventory!

22. Jealous and envious? Wanting what another has had to work for, admiring another's sobriety, but not willing to make the same effort to obtain a like sobriety for yourself?
23. Lazy? Making a million alibis to cover up your laziness, failing to pull your own share of the load?
24. Arrogant? Riding roughshod and assuming great dignity and rank you do not have?
25. Gossiping and slandering?
26. Uncharitable? Having an unkind attitude toward others, not forgiving and understanding in another what you yourself have done?
27. Lacking in hope, in yourself and for others?..an attitude of "What's the use?"
28. Lacking in even a little bit of humility?

29. Anti-social? Do you prefer your own company to that of others?
30. Avoiding responsibility? Letting the other guy take all the responsibility while you sit around and blow off your mouth and do nothing?

Now don't go way mad. The above test definitely is a guide to what may be some hidden faults we have. It emphasizes the negative. Let us remember we have some positive, good qualities. So, let's not forget to mark down on the credit side of our ledger---which incidentally should grow and grow as we progress in this new design for living we have found in Alcoholics Anonymous.

The reverse of the preceding defects of character, as well as a lot of other fine qualities, should be recorded on the plus side. By all means, jot them down too, so that we can have some kind of balance to our inventory.

Daily Tips For Old & New Members

The following fourteen points were reproduced by this Group for distribution to all of our members and we believe it will help any who read it. Its source is not known, but to its anonymous author or authors goes our thanks.

- 1) Cultivate continued acceptance of the fact that YOUR choice is between unhappy drunken drinking and doing without just ONE small drink.
- 2) Cultivate enthusiastic gratitude that you had the good fortune of finding out what was wrong with you before it was too late.
- 3) Accept as being both natural and inevitable, that for a period of time ( and it may be a long one ) you will recurrently experience:
  - a) The conscious, nagging craving for a drink as such.
  - b) The sudden, all but compelling impulse to take just one drink.
  - c) The craving, not for a drink as such but for the soothing glow and warmth a drink or two ONCE gave you.
- 4) Remember that the times that you don't want a drink are the times in which to build up the strength not to take one when you DO want one.
- 5) Develop and rehearse a daily plan of thinking and acting, by which you will live that day without a drink, regardless of what may upset you or how hard the old urge for a drink may hit you.
- 6) Don't for a split second allow yourself to think: "isn't it a pity or a mean-justice that I can't take a drink like so-called normal people."

- 7) Don't allow yourself to either think or talk about any REAL or IMAGINED pleasure you once did get from drinking.
- 8) Don't permit yourself to think a drink or two would make some bad situation better, or at least easier to live with. Instead, substitute the thought: "One drink will make it worse, one drink will mean a drunk."
- 9) Minimize your situation. Think as you see here and there some sorely handicapped person, how joyful such a person would be if his problem could be solved by just not taking one little drink today. Think gratefully of how lucky you are to have so simple and small a problem by comparison.
- 10) Cultivate and woo enjoyment of sobriety.

Catalog and re-catalog:

  - a) How good it is to be free of shame, mortification, and self-condemnation.
  - b) How good it is to be free of fear of the consequences of a drunk just ended, or of the COMING drunk you have never before been able to prevent.
- 11) Catalog and re-catalog the POSITIVE enjoyments of sobriety, such as:
  - a) The simple ability to eat and sleep normally, and to wake up glad that you are alive, glad you were sober yesterday, and glad that you have the PRIVILEGE of staying sober today.

b) The ability to face whatever life may dish out, with a peace of mind, self-respect, and a full possession of all your faculties.

- 12) Cultivate a helpful association of ideas:
  - a) Associate a drink as being the SINGLE cause of all the misery, shame and mortification you have ever known.
- 13) Cultivate:
  - a) Gratitude that so much good can be yours for so small a price.
  - b) Gratitude that you can keep all the happiness your sobriety gives you by not taking just one drink.
  - c) Gratitude that Alcoholics Anonymous exists and that YOU found out about it in time.
  - d) Gratitude that you are only the victim of a disease called Alcoholism -that you are not a degenerate, immoral weakling, the SELF-ELECTED victim of a vice, or a person of doubtful sanity.
  - e) Gratitude that since others have done it, you can in time bring it to pass that you won't want or miss the one drink you are doing without.
- 14) Seek out ways to help other alcoholics, and REMEMBER, THE FIRST WAY TO HELP OTHERS IS TO STAY SOBER YOURSELF.

SHARING

In closing darkness I stumbled and floundered,
Only vaguely aware of all I encountered.
Increasingly blinded by foggy enshroument.
Bewildered, confused by inebriations endowment,
But in that corridor of narrowing being,
Some part within was yet capable of seeing,
That the course of my life was yet in my hand
If I would but make my mind understand
The powerful force that scorned reason and plea
That progressively, insidiously was destroying me.
I fought the influence, made excuse for my deeds,
But only cultivated self-destruction's seeds
'Til that part which I regard as my soul,
Screamed more loudly than ere before,
And pierced the stupor of ALCOHOL'S veil.
With a seething, crying, pitiful wail
And sounded within with such poignant feeling,
That it staggered me. Stopped me, my mind a reeling

And in that instant I repeated its plea:
"God in Heaven help me to help me!"
And I heard me repeat my soul's rebellious scream
And what followed from then has been like a dream.
For with the aid of the phone and a man I never knew
I've found a changed life and a way proven true.
Like glistening leaves that's caught the sun
Compassionate voices have since begun,
To show me that I, tho sick and not strong,
Can have a new life to which I can belong.
From rooms like these when despair may descend,
Those echoed hopes and inspirations contend,
And with my misery and dejection, as bad as it be,
The fellowship and understanding reformatory me,
And with resignation and acceptance and each day begun,
With earnest commitment to "Thy will be done"..
And give me the serenity and courage this day,
To live as prescribed in the steps of A.A.
