EMOTIONAL SOBRIETY

Bill writes this: "I think we oldsters who have put A.A. booze cure to such severe tests, yet still lack emotional sobriety, are probably the spearhead for the next major development in A.A.: the development of something like real maturity and balance (which is to say humility) in our relations with our fellows and with God. Thus adolescence urges for top approval, perfect security and the perfect romance, urges quite appropriate to age 17, prove to be an impossible way of life at 47 or 57.

"Since AA began I've taken immense wallops in all these departments because of my failure to grow up, emotionally and spiritually. My God, how painful it is to keep insisting on the impossible, and how painful it is to discover that we have the cart before the horse. Then comes the final agony of seeing how damned wrong we are, but still finding ourselves unable, seemingly, to get off the merry-go-round.

"How to translate right intellectual convictions into right emotional results and so into easy, happy, active and good living—well, that's not only the neurotic's problem, it's the problem of life itself, for all who have got to that point of willingness to hew out the right principles. Even then, as we hew away, peace and joy still elude us. That's the place so many of us A.A. oldsters have come to. And it's a hell of a spot, literally. How shall the unconscious—from which our fears, compulsions, and phoney aspirations still stream—be brought into line with what we actually believe, want and know; how to convince our dumb, raging and hidden Mr. Hyde becomes the final task.

"I've recently come to believe that this can be done. I believe so because I begin to see many be knighted ones, folk like you and me, commencing to get results. Last Autumn, depression, having no really rational cause at all, took me to the cleaners. I began to be scared that I was in for another five year chronic spell. Considering the grief I've had with depression, it wasn't a bright prospect... I began asking myself, 'Why can't the twelve steps work to release depression?' By the hour I stared at the Francis Prayer— it's better to understand than to be understood— it's better to love than to be loved— it's better to comfort than to be comforted... Here was the formula all right. But why didn't it work? Suddenly I realized what the trouble was. My basic flow had always been dependence. ABSOLUTE DEPENDENCE— on people or circumstances to supply me with prestige, security and romance. Failing to get these according to my still childish dreams and specifications, I had fought for these things. And then defeat came, so did depression. There wasn't a chance of making the outgoing love of St. Francis a workable and joyous way of life until these fatal and really absolute dependencies were cut away.

"Because I had undergone a LITTLE SPIRITUAL DEVELOPMENT, the absolute quality of these frightful liabilities had never been before so starkly revealed. Therefore, reinforced by what Grace I could secure in prayer I found I must exert every ounce of will and action to cut off these emotional dependencies upon people, upon A.A.; indeed UPON ANY SET OF CIRCUMSTANCES WHATSOEVER. Then, only then, would I be free to love as Francis could. Emotional or instinctive satisfactions, I saw, were really the extra dividends of having love offering love and expressing love appropriate to each relation in life.

"Plainly I could not avail myself of God's love until I was able to offer it back to Him by loving others as He would have me. And I couldn't possibly do that so long as I was victimized by my dependencies. For dependency means DEMAND demand for possession and control of people and conditions. While the words 'absolute dependency' may look like a gimmick, they were the ones that triggered my release into my present stability and quietness of mind, which I am now trying to consolidate by having love and offering love regardless of the return.

This is the primary healing circuit; our outgoing love of God's creation and His people, by which we avail ourselves of His love for us. But the real current can't flow until our dependencies are broken, broken at depth. Only then can we have a glimmer of what adult love really is.

"Spiritual calculus, you say? Not a bit of it. Watch any AA of six months working on a new 12th Step case. If the case says, "To hell with you" the 12th stepper smiles and turns to another case. He does not feel frustrated or rejected. If his case responds and starts to give love and attention to other alcoholics, but returns none to the sponsor, then the sponsor is happy anyway. He doesn't feel rejected. And when his case turns out later to be his best friend (or romance) then the sponsor is joyful. But his happiness and joy were by-products, and no more. the real stabilizing thing was the having and offering of love to that strange drunk on the doorstep.

"That was Francis at work, powerful and practical, minus dependency and MINUS DEMANDS.

"In my first six months of sobriety, I worked hard with many alcoholics. NO ONE RESPONDED, but that kept me sober. It wasn't a question of them giving me ANYTHING.

STABILITY CAME OUT OF GIVING, NOT OF RECEIVING."

My stability came out of trying to give, not out of demanding that I receive.

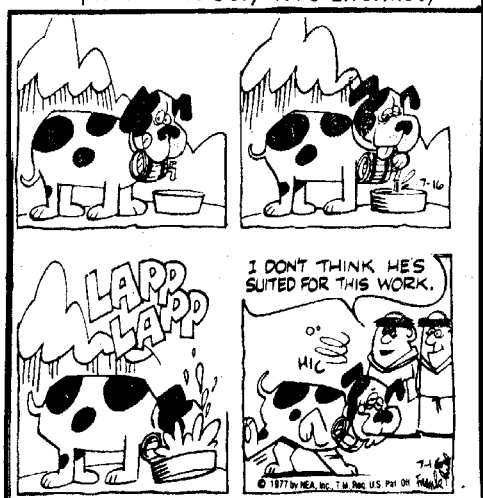

Thus I think it can work out with emotional sobriety. If we examine every disturbance we have, great or small, we will find at the root of it some unhealthy demand. Let us, with God's help, continually surrender these hobbling demands.

Then we can be set free to live and love we may then be able to Twelfth Step ourselves and others into emotional sobriety. Of course, I haven't offered you a really new idea—only a gimmick that has started to unhook several of my own "Hexes" at depth. Nowadays my brain no longer reces compulsively in either elation, grandiosity or depression. I have been given a quiet place in bright sunshine."

.....From The Grapevine's "Best of Bill"

IN MEMORIAM.....

Heartfelt Sympathy and love to the family and friends of
ACE TURLEY
(Los Alamitos)

ACE TURLEY...

Acie F.(Ace) Turley passed away July 14 at the age of 69. He would have celebrated his 18th year of sobriety next November. He was very active in Orange Co. and Long Beach , a regular attendant at Los Alamitos, Buena Park, Stanton and East Bay.

Ace was extremely service oriented- he was active in all phases of Service work, Intergroup, and General Service, and the Insitutional Committee.He will be remembered for his efforts in taping Convention meetings in the early years until recently. Ace lived for AA trying to give back some of his gift of sobriety.His Special way with newcomers & his 12 step work on a one to one basis was always his first priority.

Ace has given thousands of marbles to newcomers with this reminder,"You have a choice today- you never have to take another drink, but if you choose to drink then throw this marble just as far as you can throw it- Then say'I've lost my last marble'!"

Ace touched so many lives. He'll be long remembered. God bless you, Ace. I still have my marble.....JoAnne A.

NOTE: The obituary notices are given with the consent of the family. In some cases they will not appear for this reason.....Ed.

Minutes of F.R.E.S.H. Meeting- July 25
Orange County Central Office
Santa Ana, Ca.

Approximate attendance - 13
Wayne S. opened the meeting at 8:00PM with the Statement of Purpose. Liz Q. led in the Serenity Prayer and JoAnne A. read the Traditions. Cindy K. read the minutes of the last meeting and Lois W. provided the treasurer's report. Highlights of the discussion were as follows:

1. How does your group get its members interested in service?

The group feeling was that a member should have at least six months sobriety before being elected group secretary or for other areas of service. A group should carefully consider election procedures and candidates for service offices. It was felt that candidates for group service should have some sobriety, the time, the ability and above all else, the willingness. It was discussed how group service helps develop sobriety.

2. What is the best method of obtaining a good steering committee?

The general feeling was that the different group officers should make up a steering committee. Some groups have asked those members interested in service to stay after the group meeting to form a steering committee. One group elects a chairman for the steering committee in addition to the secretary. The concept of a good steering committee is not to govern, but to help the group stay strong.

3. How are the leaders chosen for your meetings?

Groups vary their methods of choosing leaders. One group selects a leader one week in advance. Another group will ask someone who is celebrating a birthday to lead. The majority of groups use the system of rotation to give each of its members an opportunity to lead.

The meeting closed at 9:40 PM with the prayer led by Cindy K.

.....Respectfully submitted, Cindy K.
Secretary.

Anyone wishing a copy of the new cartoon pamphlet, "Too Young", send 25¢ and a self-addressed envelope to me. I am not going into the business, but I was so impressed with it, I sent for 100 to distribute to our District Committee Members. I have had a few requests for them and they all thought it was great. The central offices should have them in by now.

A.A. World Service arrives at a position on Big Book Study Guides. Their conclusions were interesting. If your group has a G.S.R. you may have read about them in Box 4-5-9. The full position paper is available at G.S.O. Send for one! Twenty years ago G.S.O. mailed out only 5,521 copies of Box 4-5-9 (then called the Exchange Bulletin) every two months. Today circulation is over 40,000, almost eight times as many. The August-September issue is filled with very interesting material. Get your group G.S.R. to share it with you! No G.S.R.? Get an individual subscription. The cost is $1.50 per year from A.A.W.S.

The Public Information Committee in Vancouver, British Columbia, Canada do things in a big way. I participated in their Conference at the end of July and because I had come from quite a distance they had me participate in an interview with the press, (first names only), then television coverage, (shadows only) and from there to a radio station for a one hour talk show. Their Conventions have something for everyone. Speaker meetings, service meetings, films from G.S.O., Al-Anon and Alateen meetings. I attended an old timers meeting and it was really something to hear from the early pioneers. Our friends to the north are increasing membership and they got the moxie to handle it. Their banquet was outside and salmon barbeque was on the menu. Vancouver in July has to be the most beautiful place in the world.

A new Central Office is being formed in the Palm Springs Area, amid the usual controversy! Every central office has experienced these same difficulties. Those that want it and those who don't. It would seem with the increasing number of new members, and the new groups being started, it's only natural to need a local contact and office. District Nine did a lot of footwork on this, thanks to John B. and his committee. The new Chairman pro-tem is long sober Hank A. They are calling it the "Central Intergroup of the Desert".

The last Sunday in August, our District Committee Meeting will be held in Orange County Central Office. Election procedure and job descriptions will be reviewed.

The group G.S.R.s will elect a new Delegate, Alternate Delegate, Area Chairman, Secretary and Treasurer. Those eligible for elections to these positions will be, all present and immediate past District Committeemen, Intergroup Chairman, and Institutional Directors. Elections will be held the second Sunday in October.
