This Matter of

FEAR

by Bill

As the AA Book says, "Fear is an evil, corroding thread; the fabric of our lives is shot through with it." Fear is surely a bar to reason, and to love, and of course it invariably powers anger, vainglory and aggression. It underlies maudlin guilt and paralyzing depression. President Roosevelt once made the significant remark that, "We have nothing to fear but fear itself."

This is a severe indictment, and it is possibly too sweeping. For all its usual destructiveness, we have found that fear can be a starting point for better things. Fear can be a stepping stone to prudence and to a decent respect for others. It can point the path to justice, as well as to hate. And the more we have of respect and justice, the more we can begin to find the love which can suffer much, and yet be freely given. So fear need not always be destructive, because the lessons of its consequences can lead us to positive values.

The achievement of freedom from fear is a lifetime undertaking, one that can never be wholly completed. When under heavy attack, acute illness, or in other conditions of serious insecurity, we shall all react, well or badly, as the case may be. Only the vainglorious claim perfect freedom from fear, though their very grandiosity is really rooted in the fears they have temporarily forgotten.

Therefore the problem of resolving fear has two aspects. We shall have to try for all the freedom from fear that is possible for us to attain. Then we shall need to find both the courage and grace to deal constructively with whatever fears remain. Trying to understand our fears, and the fears of others, is but a first step. The larger question is how and where do we go from there.

Since AA's beginning, I have watched as thousands of my fellows became more and more able to transcend their fears. These examples have been of unflinching help and inspiration. Perhaps, then, some of my own experiences with fear and the shedding of it to an encouraging degree may be appropriate.

As a child, I had some pretty heavy emotional shocks. There was deep family disturbance; I was physically awkward, and the like. Of course other kids have such emotional handicaps and emerge unscathed. But I didn't. Evidently I was over-sensitive, and therefore overscared. Anyhow, I developed a positive phobia that I wasn't like other youngsters, and never could be. At first this threw me into depression and thence into the isolation of retreat.

But these child miseries, all of them generated by fear, became so unbearable that I turned highly aggressive. Thinking I never could belong, and vowing I'd never settle for any second-rate status, I felt I simply had to dominate in everything I chose to do, work or play. As this attractive formula for the good life began to succeed, according to my then specifications of success, I became deliriously happy. But when an undertaking occasionally did fail, I was filled with a resentment and depression that could be cured only by the next triumph. Very early, therefore, I came to value everything in terms of victory or defeat— all or nothing. The only satisfaction I knew was to win.

This was my false antidote for fear and this was the pattern, ever more deeply etched, that dogged me through school days, World War I, the hectic drinking career in Wall Street, and down into the final hour of my complete collapse. By that time adversity was no longer a stimulant, and I knew not whether my greater fear was to live or die.

While my basic fear pattern is a very common one, there are of course many others. Indeed, fear manifestations and the problems that trail in their wake are so numerous and complex that in this brief article it is not possible to detail even a few of them. We can only review those spiritual resources and principles by which we may be able to face and deal with fear in any of its aspects.

In my own case, the foundation stone of freedom from fear is that of faith; a faith that despite all worldly appearances to the contrary, cause me to believe that I live in a universe that makes sense. To me, this means a belief in a Creator who is all power, justice and love; a God who intends for me a purpose, a meaning, and a destiny to grow, however little and halting, toward His own likeness and image. Before the coming of faith I had lived as an alien in a cosmos that too often seemed both hostile and cruel. In it there could be no inner security for me.

Dr. Carl Jung, one of the three founders of modern depth psychology, had a profound conviction upon this great dilemma of the world today. In paraphrase, this is what he had to say about it: "Any person who has reached 40 years of age, and who still has no means of comprehending who he is, where he is, or where he is next going, cannot avoid becoming a neurotic- to some degree or other. This is true whether his youthful drives for sex, material security, and a place in society have been satisfied, or not satisfied." When the benign doctor said "becoming neurotic" he might just as well have said "becoming fear-ridden."

This is exactly why we of AA place such emphasis on the need for faith in a "Higher Power," define that as we may. We have to find a life in the world of grace and spirit, and this is certainly a new dimension for most of us. Surprisingly our quest for this realm of being is not too difficult. Our conscious entry into it usually begins as soon as we have deeply confessed our personal powerlessness to go on alone, and have made our appeal to whatever God we think there is- or may be. The gift of faith and the consciousness of a Higher Power is the outcome. As faith grows, so does inner security. The vast underlying fear of nothingness commences to subside. Therefore, we of AA find that our basic antidote for fear is a spiritual awakening.

It so happens that my own spiritual perception was electrically sudden and absolutely convincing. At once I became a part- if only a tiny part- of a cosmos that was ruled by justice and love in the person of God. No matter what had been the consequences of my own willfulness and ignorance, or those of my fellow travelers on earth, this was still the truth. Such was the new and positive assurance, and this has never left me. I was given to know, at least for the time being, what the absence of fear could be like. Of course my own gift of faith is not essentially different from those spiritual awakenings since received by countless AAs- it was only more sudden. But even this new frame of reference- critically important though it was- only marked my entrance into that long path which leads away from fear, and toward love. The old and deeply carved etchings of anxiety were not instantly and permanently rubbed out. Of course they reappeared and sometimes alarmingly.

Being the recipient of such a spectacular spiritual experience, it was not surprising that the first phase of my AA life was characterized by a great deal of pride and power driving. The craving for influence and approval, the desire to be THE leader was still very much with me. Better still, this behavior could be now justified- all in the name of good works!

It fortunately turned out that this rather blatant phase of my grandiosity, which lasted some years, was followed by a string of adversities. My demands for approval, which were obviously based on the fear that I might not get enough of it, began to collide with these identical traits of my fellow AAs. Hence their saving of the Fellowship from me, and I saving it from them, became an all-absorbing occupation. This of course resulted in anger, suspicion and all sorts of frightening episodes. In this remarkable and now rather amusing era of our affairs, any number of us commenced playing God all over again. For some years AA power drivers ran hog wild. But out of this fearsome situation, the Twelve Steps and the Twelve Traditions of AA were formulated. Mainly these were principles designed for ego reduction, and therefore for the reduction of our fears. These were the principles which we hoped would hold us in unity and increasing love for each other and for God.

Gradually we began to be able to accept the other fellow's sins as well as his virtues. It was in this period that we coined the potent and meaningful expression, "Let us always love the best in others- and never fear their worst." After some ten years of trying to work this brand of love and the ego-reducing properties of the AA Steps and Traditions into the life of our society, the awful fears for the survival of AA simply vanished.

The practice of AA's Twelve Steps and Twelve Traditions in our personal lives also brought incredible releases from fear of every description, despite the wide prevalence of formidable personal problems. When fear did persist, we knew it for what it was, and under God's grace we became able to handle it. We began to see each adversity as a God-given opportunity to develop the kind of courage which is born of humility rather than of bravado. Thus we were enabled to accept ourselves, our circumstances, and our fellows. Under God's grace we even found that we could die with decency, dignity and faith, knowing that "the Father doeth the works."

We of AA now find ourselves living in a world characterized by destructive fears as never before in history. But in it we nevertheless see great areas of faith, and tremendous aspirations toward justice and brotherhood. Yet no prophet can presume to say whether the world outcome will be blazing destruction or the beginning under God's intention, of the brightest era yet known to mankind. I am sure we AAs well comprehend this scene. In microcosm, we have experienced this identical state of terrifying uncertainty, each in his own life. In no sense pridefully, we AAs can say that we do not fear the world outcome, whatever course it may take. This is because we have been enabled to deeply feel and say, "We shall fear no evil- Thy will, not ours, be done."

IN MEMORIAM

Sympathy and love to the family and friends of

MATT MATTHEWS
(Newport Beach)

MATT MATTHEWS.....

Matt Matthews left AA the best way in the world---sober. He was very active in Ontario, where he found sobriety, as well as here in the Newport area.

Many of us are driving cars we got through Matt and find it symbolic that he died while driving his own car.

He was so very dear to many of us and we miss him...even though he's probably leading the finest AA meeting possible. We love you, Matt.

.....Giorgi

A SUNSET IN SOBRIETY..

How many sunsets I watched prior to this year of sobriety that I never saw. "The radiance and glow that I did not see, because I was clouded head and heart with the disease of Alcohol. I thought everyone else had a problem but me!

I have AA to thank--all the people in AA, because they are what makes it possible for me to BE today.

I could give you names and places, but in AA it doesn't matter. What does matter is that I and you can share in this great spiritual experience and friendship. All we have to do is have a desire to stop drinking. What a great privilege that is for us who need some one and some place to go and listen to us.

I know today that I owe sanity and life to you and AA for being here when I needed you, I am grateful and thankful for all of you.

Love and thanks, Jean B.

Listen to the squandered who says, "A.A. should relax its traditions" (Usually the person who says that doesn't even know the traditions.) or "I've done my share;" "I don't want the responsibility", "I don't have time to get to meetings anymore," etc. etc. etc. Listen on the telephone while I make excuses to a sick woman calling for help because there are no sober women willing to make the call. One day I was turned down by six gals in a row, "My hair is in curlers!" "I was just on my way out the door" etc. (I can't remember ever making a twelfth step call that was convenient for me at the time). . . . Another sign of squander is seen in the list for the answering service of only twelve people willing to accept calls after office hours.

WOULD THE PHONE HAVE RUNG UN-ANSWERED WHEN YOU CALLED?
WOULD YOU BE ALIVE AND SOBER TODAY????

Russ P., Special Projects, reported on the lifeline mailing and thanked the following for their help:

Big John, Garden Grove; Hank H., Huntington Beach; Nellie H., Huntington Beach; Emma P., El Toro; Margie J., Costa Mesa; Ed S., Costa Mesa; Helene S., Costa Mesa; and Bill McB., Costa Mesa.

Special Events, George M., reported over 400 people present at Easter Meeting. Picnic will be held June 24 and he needs lots of help. It will be in Mile Square in Fountain Valley.*

Milt S., Director of the H&I Committee, asked us to cease and desist on the Big Books and 12 & 12 as he has enough.

A new panel has been opened at Brea Hospital.

Under Old Business - a new Intergroup Office in Orange County. Jim C. and Forrest O. are looking into this and will report back.

Colleen C., Office Manager, suggested that if anybody wants to be called desperately on 12 Step calls to mention after 9 PM and they will put your name in the front of the cardex.

*Annual Picnic has been canceled!

"We've decided to discontinue serving cocktails during our business meetings as, at the last last one, we voted to spend everything in the treasury on a wild weekend in Bermuda."

ANSWER THAT 12TH STEP CALL- THE LIFE YOU SAVE MAY BE YOUR OWN!

GENERAL SERVICE CONFERENCE REPORT

The 29th General Service Conference is now a past event, but the memory will certainly stay with me for a long time. It was an exciting week of learning and sharing, making new friends and seeing the old, feelings of great joy with a few moments of sadness but most memorable was seeing the group conscience in action. In many instances the Conference members were not in agreement, but through loving communication, we were able to reach decisions that in most instances were nearly unanimous. My impression was that the Conference truly is an example of the Second Tradition in action.

The election of Dr. Kenneth H. Williams (non-alcoholic) was accepted by the Conference to fill the vacancy left when Dr. Norris retired last year. Dr. Williams is a resident of Pittsburgh, Pa. and is assistant professor of psychiatry and internal medicine at the University of Pittsburgh School of Medicine. He is dedicated to informing fellow physicians about alcoholism and A.A.

The 28 minute color film titled "Alcoholics Anonymous--An Inside View" featuring A.A. members in candid, unrehearsed scenes throughout the U.S. and Canada was viewed Monday evening by the Conference members. This gave us the opportunity to think about and discuss the film for several days before we again viewed it on Thursday and reached the decision for approval. We felt the some of the sound track needed improvement which will be done before it is released. Filming techniques have been employed so as to guard the anonymity of the A.A. members in the film. The Conference felt the film should be released on a limited basis until an evaluation on the film can be made by the 1980 Conference. Therefore, A.A. World Services will retain ownership of the film and control the distribution of each copy. During this year, the film will be released only to groups with an expressed, direct interest in helping the sick alcoholic. The respective area delegates will be notified of all requests from his or her area for the film. A.A. service entities such as Public Information Committees and Institutional Committees will have a priority for distribution but it will be available to any A.A. entity wishing to show it. Anyone involved in showing the film will be asked to submit a brief evaluation on a prepared form to G.S.O. The results of the evaluation will then be reviewed by the 1980 Conference Public Information Committee and TV usage will be delayed for one year until the General Service Conference has the opportunity to get the reaction of the Fellowship and the public to the film.

After a great deal of discussion on "Alcohol and Pill" groups the Conference decided that groups which by name are dually addicted members will not be listed in the World Directory. And speaking of World Directories, the 1979 edition of all three (Eastern/Western, U.S. and Canada) World Directories are ready for distribution and should shortly be in the hands of all groups registered with G.S.O.

The ceiling on individual contributions has been raised from $300 to $500; however, emphasis continues to be on group contributions which are the primary basis of group support. Contributions are up 20% over last year at this time and if the present trend of group support continues there could, in the future, be another decrease in the price of literature.

Plans for the 45th Anniversary International Convention to be held July 3-6, 1980 in New Orleans are well underway. The theme of the Convention will be "the Joy of Living". All major events will be held in the Superdome with alkathonsscheduled in hotel ballrooms. Opening night there will be a parade which will be a complete replica of the Mardi Gras parade---followed by 2 dances, the Crawfish Crawl for young people and the Mardi Gras Ball for the young at heart. Registration forms will be coming to the groups about Sept. 15 with hotel accomodations being filled on a first come-first served basis. The Fellowship will be kept up-to-date on this through issues of Box 4-5-9.

The new pamphlet, "It Sure Beats Sitting in a Cell" for use in Institutions has been approved and will soon be in production. The Literature Committee is working on a new pamphlet for the elderly at present. Dr. Bob's biography should be published early in 1980 with the Bill W. biography following later in the year--perhaps by the International Convention in July.

The 1st Tradition

Our common welfare should come first; personal recovery depends on AA unity

There are no "musts" or "don'ts"...

...but we soon learn that unless we curb our individual desires and ambitions, we can damage the group.

Our sobriety depends on the group. The group depends on us.

At first we go along because we have to...

Later we find a way of life we want to live.

We discover that we cannot keep this priceless gift unless we give it away. We will not survive unless we carry the AA message.
