Excerpt from Tradition #7 (Long Form)
 "Then too, we view with much concern those AA Groups which continue beyond prudent reserves to accumulate funds."

Lifeline

We need contributions, cartoons, articles of your own experiences. For example, "What AA means to me," problems of getting rid of empties, hiding the jug, etc.

Also if you have any suggestions about Lifeline, send them in. We are trying to give you the best in Orange County news.

Please help us to keep the subscriptions up, by mentioning it in your group. We do need your help.

Lifeline presents the experiences of AAs and others interested in alcoholism. Opinions expressed herein are not to be attributed to Alcoholics Anonymous as a whole, nor does publication of any article imply endorsement, either by AA or the Lifeline.

NOTE: It is very difficult to write a proper memorial to members your editor does not know personally. Please, when you call in a death of a member, include a short writeup about the person. Some of you have done this and I am most grateful.... Editor

INTERGROUP HIGHLIGHTS . . .

Vice-Chairman, Ray B., opened the meeting at 8PM. He took over for Lew W., Chairman, absent due to a death in the family.

The most gratifying report was given by Al S., Public Relations, who read a letter received from the Health Dept. of Westminster High School thanking AA and Louie P. in particular for his carrying six periods all alone. From what I hear, many members have been carrying this load for some time. It's good to be appreciated. If you would like to "carry the message" in the schools, call Al. I'm sure he would be most grateful.

3 Months ago a motion was made to have the gay groups so designated in the Directory. The chairman asked the reps to take the subject in question back to their groups for their consideration.

There was no discussion. A vote was taken, only GR's voting and the motion was approved. The May directory will so designate, according to the editor. Matty J. has been replaced by A. J. P. as Central Office Chairman.

Jerry R., Special Events, announced that there were still tickets available to the April 4th Spring Fling at the Grand Hotel in Anaheim. Also asked for help with the Easter Meeting, Apr. 19th and the Picnic May 31st. Anyone who would like to get involved, your help would be most appreciated. Call the C.O. and leave a message for Jerry.

79 Group reps attended. this is one of the largest attendance on record. Keep Coming Back.

Lifeline is celebrating eighteen years this month.

MESSAGE FROM YOUR DELEGATE.....

THIS YEAR'S PACIFIC REGION General Service Area Assembly was one of the best we have attended. Anchorage, Alaska AA members did themselves proud in entertaining us and demonstrated what an excellent job a relatively small number of dedicated people can do with an opportunity to serve the Fellowship.

The attendance was very good considering that Alaska is a fair distance from most of us who attended. All of the twelve delegates from the Pacific Region Area were there. These were from Hawaii, Arizona, Idaho, Nevada, Oregon, Utah, Washington and the five area delegates from California. In addition the delegate from British Columbia (Yukon) came.

The program committee had a well balanced number of panels covering these topics: Our Leaders are but Trusted Servants- They Do Not Govern. Principles Before Personalities--AA Unity. Sponsorship- a Helping Hand. Alano Clubs and AA Districting. AA Takes Its Inventory. Lastly, The Conference Committee System. A Discussion/Sharing Session was also devoted to District Committeemen and General Service Representative duties and responsibilities. The conference ended with a very interesting Ask It Basket in session in which all the delegates were given an opportunity to field questions on an interesting variety of subjects.

Alaska Delegate, Marge F., and Program Chairman, Milt S., are to be especially congratulated on the planning and presenting of the whole Conference as well as the smooth way it all went. We all knew that the real spirit of Alcoholics Anonymous was manifest throughout the weekend. Next year we will be in Portland, Oregon and bids were made for 1983 from Salt Lake City, Santa Clara (Cal.) and San Diego (Cal.).

Those who joined me in Anchorage from the MSCA were Clara and Bill C., Bob B., and Ellery and his lovely lady, Helen. Clara and I join in thanking you all for enabling us to serve you.

RETURNS FROM THE 1981 General Service Questionnaire have been coming in in quite slowly but the answers show that many AA members are interested in the theme of the 1981 N.Y. Conference, "AA Takes Its Inventory- General Conference Structure and a look at the Committee System" as used throughout AA. Only about 100 of the Questionnaires have reached me but several things appear to be quite obvious. We have not had time as yet to completely analyze the trends and make a complete report, question by question. We shall try to have this done by the first of April.

In the meantime here are some group conscience feelings. It seems that few of our groups in MSCA have steering committees, and relatively few have representatives at the Intergroup or Assembly level. There is little or no group activity for the Grapevine nor for Public Information-Communication with the Professional Community work. This latter is left to the Intergroups in the area. Most AA members in our area feel that no compensation of any sort for any type of committee work should be given. Speakers should pay their own way. Most group jobs are filled through volunteers and with little advice as to what the responsibilities entail. It is very evident that most people believe that Clubs should not be given the Group Discount when purchasing literature for resale. The use of last names should be a personal choice in AA and certainly so outside the Fellowship was the general concern.

Thank all of you for taking the time to help me learn how you and your groups feel. I shall go to the Conference prepared to reflect what I believe to be the Group Conscience on the topics discussed, even though response was small.....Denver C., Area Delegate

DISTRICT #7

District #7 has changed its time to the first Monday of the month. Location still at the church, Main & Stanford, Garden Grove. 7:30PM instead of 8PM.

SHARING IS CARING

SIT DOWN! SHUT UP! LISTEN! MAKE MEETINGS! AND GET A FRIEND! . . .

I first came to AA 5 years ago. I still hadn't surrendered. How could anyone like me surrender to anything good. I saw things though! I was still able to recognize love. Love frightened me, because though I desired it greatly, I always seemed to abuse it.

I saw Ralph. An elderly man, with snow white hair and an appearance of pride in the ability to love. I loved this man from afar.

Ralph would give his qualification in all simplicity. Sharing the fundamentals of the disease, his entrance into A.A., and gradually from the time he started speaking, his childlike manner seemed to be sending a breeze that was cool and refreshing to the soul, and grew to a point where I felt like I was hang gliding thru the most beautiful simple country in the world. Now I've never been hang gliding but I know exactly what it's like. To feel the freedom and simplicity of a bird from listening to Ralph. And the funny thing is you don't land with a crash. Actually you just seem to bring new heights and horizons to the ground with you. I just seemed to be able to look up instead of trudging down. Ralph and I and many others I have met in A.A. do not "trudge down the happy road of destiny." Now prior to coming to AA I had tried to kill my father on three occasions. I was at the peak of defiance, despair self-hate, etc.

"Ask a man to help?" "Get a sponsor?" I followed Ralph around for 8 1/2 months loving him from afar, and I imagine him talking to me with the simplicity of love that generated from him. "Go ahead, Eddie. Ask him to be your sponsor"- "Oh God, must I?" I think I'll die if I do! I'm just about positive he wouldn't say no. He's too good a man to do that to someone." I felt like I had to ask someone to be my father. Me! Mister self-sufficient! Never asked anybody for anything! Was a father to myself all my life and a big brother to seven younger brothers and sisters. Ask a man for help? Oh, God! Must I? God, though I wanted to. You see I always wanted the best for myself all my life in whatever it was. If I was able to do this sponsorship business it was going to be Ralph, because I still wanted the best. Before I started drinking, I was going to be either the best doctor, or lawyer or priest-or bum. Now I could see that this thing was a spiritual answer to a physical disease and I wanted the best.

Anyway still unemployed, and after talking to Ralph after a daytime meeting, I was invited by Ralph to His apartment for coffee. "This is the opportunity to ask him!!" "Are you crazy?" "I can't do it. I can't do it!" "Force yourself!" Sitting at the table trying to scrape up the exact way to ask him, suffering the torment of the damned, I was looking at Ralph who was at total peace, enjoying my company!

Well, rather than going into a convulsion, I spit it out. "Ralph! I got something to ask you! I'd like you to be my sponsor!" 3 second pause and then in a disappointing tone of voice, he said, "No, Eddie." Oh, God! This can't be happening! I almost died doing this! He's got to have a reason. He's too beautiful a person to do this to me! For once in my life, I was right! Because I looked at Ralph and with a smile that said, "Joy, eyes that said 'Love' and an aura that said "Peace! He said, "Eddie, I'll do better than that. I'll be your friend." After being mentally rejected by my father who shared nothing but sadistic things with me, and drinking myself into a personality that all I ever wanted to do was stay away from, I meet this man who wants to share love with me in a real sense.

I'm glad Ralph's not my sponsor. I might have felt that I was under someone's thumb. You see, Ralph and I feel that a friend will have more of an influence on a person, then someone who might feel they have to do the right thing for a person all the time. He makes all the suggestions that a sponsor makes, but he speaks as a friend. I can accept or reject his suggestions. I usually accept because I know he cares. I even make suggestions to him, and you know something he chooses to accept quite often because he knows I care about him. You see, he knows I'm not what I chose to believe I was and that I have something to offer.

I've yet to abuse Ralph's love, because I have found a gift that was like an oasis on a desert. And the more I drink from it, the stronger I am to add to the oasis and build it up. I appreciate this oasis and I give to it, and you know something it's getting more beautiful each and every day.

So am I. Love, Your friend, Eddie. P.S. I'm sending my father beautiful cigar right now that I know he enjoys.

The other day, while thinking back, all of a sudden I got poetic. Herewith a copy of what I wrote and how I feel now after 3 years.

If this can be published, maybe someone else may get something from it.

Sincerely yours, One day at a time,
Roy M., Fullerton

CONTENTMENT.

I now recall away back when
That someone said to me
You drink too much
And they were right
And now I'm an alky

They also told me at the time
Where help for me there was
And help there is for everyone
It's just like Santa Claus.

The place I went is North on Harbor
A haven place to rest
Where everyone wants to help
And counseling is at it's best.

They told me of the Do's and
Don't's, the How's, the Why's, the Whens
And even told me how it would be
If I ever drank again.

I met a lot of people there who were
The same as me, and together we shared
All we had-for proof, I gained sobriety.

The world I live in now
Is different as can be
As those I lost away back then
Are there again to love me.

It takes a little work to do
All the things they said
But what a difference there is
Each day when I arise from my bed.

My Higher Power and myself
Have planned and pulled together
If this were not so
This could not have worked
No, never!

I urge all of you who understand
What has been said above
To do all you can to save the only
Life you have and love.

. Roy M.
