" I have only just a minute
Only 60 seconds in it,
Forced upon me, can't refuse it,
Didn't seek it, didn't choose it.
I must suffer if I lose it,
Give account if I abuse it.
Just a tiny little minute,
But eternity is in it."

VOL. XVIII. NO. 9. (USPS 312-680)

ORANGE COUNTY, CALIFORNIA

JANUARY 1981

1981 A NEW YEAR -ONE DAY AT A TIME

We enter a New Year. As we do, many will have the inclination to review the old. To the extent of crystalizing the wisdom of its experience, that is good. To go beyond that is bad, for it may lead to pride over good things, or worse yet, self-pity and resentment over adverse things.

At the end of the year we must simply realize that the great Moving Finger has written another page in our copybook of life. If a page is a year, then perhaps we might regard a paragraph as a month, a sentence as a week, a word as a day, and a comma or letter as a moment. We must accept with grace the fact that not one word or letter or comma in that page of life can be changed. It is deposited forever in eternity. Today is our time. This is the reality we face, it is all here here now in this present instant. We live one day at a time, for "Now is reality." The future holds nothing for us but fear or scheming. If we would do today that which may be helpful tomorrow, it is the doing right as of now, which is our sole concern.

The future is the area in which we must have faith, must surrender completely to our Higher Power, not knowing what it holds, or whether in fact it will come to be. This is in His hands. But we know that whatever it may be, a merciful God, as we understand Him, will never change the sobriety we have had or the good we have done today.

Our situation in terms of the future is beautifully expressed in this quotation from an essay of Minnie Louise Haskins, which concluded the remarks of George VI in the last New Year broadcast he made to the British Commonwealth of Nations:

"I said to the man at the gate of the New Year, 'Give me a light that I may find my way through the unknown.' And he replied, 'Go out into the darkness of the New Year and place your hand firmly into the hand of God. That shall be better for you than any light or any known way.'"

NO RESERVATIONS

REQUIRED!

It was about an hour before meeting time when we arrived, but already absolutely every seat had keys, cards, books, handkerchiefs, combs, etc. on them.

A quick and easy count indicated that even if each of those present when we arrived had saved two extra seats for late-arriving friends, more than half the seats in the auditorium would have been available.

But no, someone (or someones) had obviously laid claim to blocks of seats.

This is not new to A.A., of course, but it is getting worse, much more frequent and flagrant. And it is cause for concern.

What if a newcomer is confronted by this "reserved seats only" atmosphere, for instance? Chances are he or she would be saying goodbye before we had a chance to say hello.

If it's group conscience that any number of seats can be so set aside, it should be announced from the podium by the secretary. And if it's not group conscience that this be allowed, that too should be announced and those doing it told to knock it off. (Common courtesy it is not)!

Tradition 3 reads: "The only requirement for membership is a desire to stop drinking." Are we now adding to that" . . . and advanced reservations for a seat at meetings" ?

This is a matter that effects A.A. as a whole. What is your group's conscience on it? M.M., Los Angeles.

60-30-10 Plan

To support A.A.'s essential services, the General Services Conference recommends that groups follow the "60-30-10" plan. It works like this:

First, take care of basic group expenses, (rent, refreshments and A.A. literature. Divide remaining funds as follows:
 60% to your intergroup of Central Office To support phone service for 12th Step calls and other inquiries; coordination of group activities; and A.A. literature sales.
 30% to your General Service Office. To support group services throughout the U.S. Canada.; the General Service Conference; helping lone members and groups in institutions; and carrying the A.A. message worldwide.
 10% to your Area Committee. To support area assemblies, delegates' expenses and area public information and institution work.
 (The above is excerpted from the A.A. Pamphlet "Self-Supporting? The 60-30-10 Plan".)

A THANK YOU . . .

Santa Claus arrived early at Central Office alias Don M. from Huntington Beach with another new chair. We all thank Don.

THE ANNUAL TRADITIONS BANQUET which is anticipated by many members of AA in the Harbor Area was well attended this year and we sincerely hope it realized its stated purpose "to raise some funds for the NY Office of AA." This represents the annual contribution from the Harbor Area Central Office each year and is a good purpose, in addition to bringing a goodly number of recovering alcoholics together for food, fun, dancing and to hear a good recovery message from an AA member and an Al-Anon member. This year we heard our beloved Chuck and Elsa.

As an additional fringe benefit each person had an opportunity to get a copy of an interesting history of AA in the Harbor Area which is written and compiled by Flossie L., who instituted the first Central Office in Long Beach on May 14, 1948 with the assistance of her husband, Clarence, and the hearty cooperation of the nine regular groups in the area at that time: Bowling Green, Signal Hill, Westside, 20-40, North Long Beach, Mother, East Bay, San Pedro and Wilmington. Thus began Central AA Service in the Long Beach home of an Al-Anon and an Alcoholics Anonymous member.

We constantly hear of Anonymity breaks throughout the Mid-Southern California Area at the level of press, radio and film and all of us in service at almost any level of such activity, be it Central Office, Hospital and Institutional committees, General Service committees, Public Information and Cooperation with the Professional Community committees and in speaking personally before AA groups as well as outside groups maintain the tradition and practice of personal anonymity. However, there are notable exceptions. Many breaks are through ignorance of the tradition and of its value to us in our recovery. Other breaks many times seem to be an ego problem on the part of those who break their personal anonymity. Still others use AA as a means of some personal gain, either intentionally or caselessly. We all owe it to AA and the society and its program which saved our lives to respect anonymity, our own, others, and to the program itself where it appears necessary. This is invariably a good discussion topic in discussion meetings.

This is the time of year when rotation of jobs in our committees at all levels occupies the attention of a great many of us. Elections are being held to all sorts of AA committees, new people being given opportunities to serve, trusted servants in amny cases being returned because no one "wants the job". But for me one of the better side benefits of sobriety has been the chance to serve. It helps us learn humility, gratitude, more about AA as a whole, and enriches our lives in countless ways. If you are asked to serve, take the opportunity and the experience will likely help in ways you never expected.

"A NEWCOMER ASKS" is the newest AA General Service Conference approved pamphlet. This originated in England as AA literature and has been released to World Service for use in the U.S. and Canada (and world wide). It is very definitely prepared for the newcomer to easily understand. Ten questions are presented which are those most often asked by a person newly into the program or "researching" it. The second question dealt with, we liked especially. "How Can This Help Me with My Drinking Problem?"

"We in AA know what it is like to be addicted to alcohol, and to be unable to keep promises made to others and ourselves that we will stop drinking. We are not professional therapists. Our only qualification for helping others to recover from alcoholism is that we have stopped drinking ourselves, but problem drinkers coming to us know that recovery is possible because they see people who have done it." The pamphlet is available at your AA Central Office for ten cents a copy.

.....Denver C., Delegate, Mid-Southern California Area

This is an excerpt(page 264-65 from the new book, Dr. Bob and the Good Oldtimers".

"Dr. Bob commented on the Eleventh Tradition as follows:"

"Since our Tradition on anonymity designates the exact level where the line should be held, it must be obvious to everyone who can read and understand the English language that to maintain anonymity at any other level is definitely a violation of this Tradition."

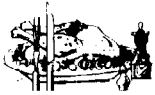

The A.A. who hides his identity from his fellow A.A. by using only a given name violates the Tradition just as much as the A.A. who permits his name to appear in the press in connection with matters pertaining to A.A."

"The former is maintaining his anonymity above the level of press, radio and films, and the latter is maintaining his anonymity below the level of press, radio and films---whereas the Tradition states that we should maintain our anonymity at the level of press, radio and films."

New Year's Eve
comes once a year
Morning-After
we don't fear—

THE MORN AFTER NEW YEARS

'Twas the morn after New Years
And all over the place
Were glasses and ashtrays
Oh, what a disgrace.

Oh what had I said
and What had I done
I just can't remember
I think I had fun.

I remember the laughter
The ball at Times Square
I remember me saying
I need some fresh air.

Just after midnight
I walked out the door
The next thing I know
I awoke on the floor.

The guests had departed
I hope they had fun
I feel so remorseful
I just want to run.

My head it is pounding
My stomach's upset
I feel very shakey
I can't get up yet.

.....Jeannette M.

I just cannot take it
I'm down and I'm beat
Liquor has got me
I can't even eat.

I crawled to the phone stand
And pulled down the book
Alcoholics Anonymous
That's where I'll look.

I dialed the number
And gave them my plea
I tried to explain
What had happened to me.

After a moment
He started to speak
I know of some people
Who's help you can seek.

Where can I find them?
I wanted to know
Just give me directions
That's where I'll go.

I did what you told me
And happy to say
Today I am proud
To be a part of AA.
