WHO IS A MEMBER OF ALCOHOLICS ANONYMOUS? by BILL

The number of membership rules which have been made (and mostly broken) are legion. If all these edicts had been in force everywhere at once it would have been practically impossible for any alcoholic to have ever joined Alcoholics Anonymous. About nine-tenths of our oldest and best members could never have got by.

In most cases we would have been too discouraged by the demands made upon us. Most of the early members of A.A. would have been thrown out because they slipped too much, because their morals were too bad, because they had mental as well as alcoholic difficulties. Or, believe it or not, because they did not come from the better classes of society. The way our "worthy" alcoholics have sometimes tried to judge the "less worthy" is, as we look back on it, rather comical. Imagine, if you can, one alcoholic judging another! At one time or another most Alcoholics Anonymous groups go on rule making benders. Panhandlers begin to panhandle. Members get drunk and sometimes others get drunk with them. Those with mental difficulties throw depressions or break out into paranoid denunciations of other members. Gossips gossip, and righteously denounce the local Wolves and Red Riding Hoods. Newcomers argue that they aren't alcoholics at all, but keep coming around anyway. "Slippers" trade on the fair name of A.A. in order to get themselves jobs. Others refuse to accept all of the 12 Steps of Recovery Program. Some go still further, saying that the "God Business" is bunk and quite unnecessary. Under these conditions our conservative program-abiding members get scared. These appalling conditions must be controlled, they think. Else AA will surely go to rack and ruin.

At this point the Group enters the rule and regulation phase. Charters, by-laws and membership rules are excitedly passed and authority is granted committees to filter out undesirables and discipline the evil doers. Then the Group Elders, now clothed with authority, commence to get busy. Recalcitrants are cast into the canteen, darkness, respectable busybodies throw stones at the sinners.

"The only requirement for membership is an honest desire to stop drinking. We are not allied with any particular faith, sect or denomination nor do we oppose anyone. We simply wish to be helpful to those who are afflicted."

The Elders soon discover that the rules and regulations aren't working very well. Most attempts at enforcement generate such waves of dissention and intolerance in the Group that this condition is presently recognized to be worse for the Group life than the very worst that the worst ever did.

Of course this is not the universal state of affairs throughout A.A. If a member persists in coming to meetings drunk he may be led outside; we may ask someone to take him away. Though he may be thrown out of a club, nobody thinks of throwing him out of AA. He is a member as long as he says he is. We do not wish to deny anyone his chance to recover from alcoholism. We wish to be just as inclusive as we can, never exclusive. Every older A.A. shudders when he remembers the names of persons he once condemned; people he confidently predicted would never sober up; persons he was sure ought to be thrown out of A.A. for the good of the movement. Now that some of these very persons have been sober for years, and may be numbered among his best friends, the oldtimer thinks himself "What if everybody had judged these people as I once did? What if AA had slammed the door in their faces? Where would they be now?"

That is why we judge the newcomer less and less. If alcohol is an uncontrollable problem TO HIM and HE wishes to do something about it, that is enough for us. We care not whether his case is severe or light, whether his morals are good or bad, whether he has other complications or not. Our A.A. door stands wide open, and if he passes through it and commences to do anything at all about his problem, he is considered a member of Alcoholics Anonymous.

"If you want to stop drinking
We'll go to hell for you.
If you want to go on drinking
You can go to hell by yourself."

Third Step to Happiness

Live not only in quiet desperation but look forward always with hopeful aspiration. Act now, today, in the living present and do not just passively accept things, only later to resent. Much exists that, with your effort, you can rearrange and you only need to accept serenely that which cannot be changed. Happy living demands your own rigorous effort, as well as admitting dependence on God for your ultimate support. You must attempt honestly to learn and accept your own limits and hold off the quitter instinct until you have truly done your best. Then turn it over and let go completely and internally generate the attitude that God is handling it for you and, most important act that way! Do not worry! Worry burns up your spiritual energy and reflects a lack of trust in God. Believe not only that there is a God but rather believe in God. Working faith is not saying "God help me," but positively acting and trusting that He is helping. That is how it works! We do our best and let go. We believe that

He can do it. We act trustingly that He will. The result is to be accepted as His will for us. In acting thus, with trusting faith, we receive His power when we need it. Don't ask to have help for future problems; when the time comes act and just use it to convince yourself you have it. Actions not only speak louder than words, but they prove more. With an attitude like this, life becomes an understanding acceptance of its flavor balance between the sweet and the sour. We must but realize He loves us and place our will and our lives in His care. As our working faith increases, our knowledge and limitations will expand and, in harmony with His will for us—our lives—we will truly begin to control. Under His watchful concern and direction, our life's course is changed to happy living. In essence, God creates order out of chaos if we but, humbly ask, do our part and cooperate with Him. The acid test is acceptance of the results and our attitude toward them. Your attitude is the basis for all your actions. As your attitude is so, your actions will be. A happy attitude begets happy actions and if you act happy you are progressing toward happiness, that elusive state of being which is the ultimate end or goal of our very existence.

We want money for what it buys, power for who we can rule. Happiness for happiness sake is an end in itself. The key to our elusive quest is our own attitude. Only you can control your attitude and the responsibility for it and the actions it begets rests entirely on you. With your proper attitude, God and others can help you. That is very true. But whatever degree of happiness you reach, it essentially must be first willed and started inside yourself and directed to God for fulfillment.

A LITTLE AT A TIME...

We sometimes grow impatient
When the things we want to do
Seem to take a whole lot longer
Than we'd really like them to...
If there's a goal that must be reached—
Or a bridge that must be crossed—
We feel that in the time it takes
Our purpose will be lost...
But if something is worth doing,
Then the only way to do it
Is just a little at a time—
And when you're finally thru it,
You'll find it was less difficult
To do ( without a doubt )
Than you ever had imagined
Before you started out.
So if there's a dream that should come true
Or a mountain you would climb,
Remember that great things are done
A little at a time... Phyllis Culp Mabry

ON A PRISON FARM....
 They say that a drink is no harm done
 But I'm here to say that it's just begun
 There comes a time, when you will say
 If I can drink just one, I'll make it thru the day.
 But your day turns to night, and some how you say
 If I can have one more, I'll be on my way.
 So you order up and sit right down
 And four hours later, you're still around.
 You look at your watch, and it seems to say
 I think it's best you're on your way.
 So you stumble out, and look for your car
 And when you've spotted it, you know it's not far.
 You stagger over and hop right in,
 And now you figure you can win.
 Your hands are not steady and your vision is blurred,
 When you suddenly realize,
 That you pulled to the curb.
 There's a flash in your face and a click of your wrist
 And now you realize, you could not have won.
 The odds you were playing were a million to one,
 So those who say, "One will notharm"
 Has naver done time on a prison farm..

CLUES TO SOBRIETY.....
Just as alcoholism is a progressive disease, so is sobriety a progressive delight. Just a few of these clues to that condition of bliss, in their varying degrees, are set down for your guidance. You may safely term yourself sober when you can.....

1. Open your eyes and crawl out of bed looking forward to a hearty breakfast. Open your eyes and crawl out of bed looking forward. Open your eyes!
  2. Walk into the bathroom, look at yourself in the mirror and shave without danger of decapitation. Walk into the bathroom, look at yourself in the mirror and shave. Walk into the bathroom, look at yourself in the mirror. Walk into the bathroom. Walk!
  3. Stand steady, your chest throbbing with merry song, while the morning shower pours down on your manly frame. Stand steady, your chest throbbing with merry song. Stand steady your chest throbbing. Stand steady. Stand steady. Stand!
  4. Find your shoes, under the bed, without hard knots tied in their laces, neatly triggered out on shoe trees. Find your shoes, under the bed, without hard knots tied in their laces. Find your shoes under the bed. Find your shoes!
  5. Lift up a cup of coffee, take a sip without trembling or spilling a drop. Lift up a cup of coffee, take a sip. Lift up a cup of coffee. Lift up a cup. Lift Up!
  6. Breathe easy as you hurry along to the office on time, with a clear conscience, and no fear of confronting the boss. Breathe easy as you hurry along to the office. Breathe easy as you hurry. Breathe easy. Breathe!
