Orange County Intergroup Association of Alcoholics Anonymous Website Guidelines

The Orange County Intergroup Association of Alcoholics Anonymous publishes the website at <http://oc-aa.org>. The website contains public information and follows the AA Guidelines for the Internet (Form MG-18) published by the General Service Office and revised 6/12.

The website is the responsibility of the Central Office Committee. The Committee's Chair and Central Office Manager report website issues to the Orange County Intergroup Service Board and the Orange County Intergroup. All information posted on the website is posted solely as a service to our members and not an endorsement by or affiliation to the Orange County Intergroup Association of Alcoholics Anonymous. As a general guide, events posted on the website are put on by AAs for AAs about AA.

The website also provided useful links to facilitate information about AA and AA activities. These links do not constitute or indicate review, endorsement, or approval. Links to individual members and non-AA related websites or content are not permitted. Non-AA related website link exception: A direct link to Google Maps is permitted.
