How your contributions support Orange County Intergroup

Your generous contributions provide the funding we need to keep the doors open and the lights on to provide books and pamphlets to meetings such as yours. Central Office does not make a profit from literature or anything sold. Just like a meeting of AA, Central Office operates on the 7th Tradition alone. We are here to help the Groups carry the message of AA to the alcoholic who still suffers. Contributing monthly helps Central Office to provide the following:

- *Provide Literature for individuals, groups, and H&I
- *Publish the Lifeline newsletter
- *Pay for rent, office supplies, insurance, taxes and Special Workers office management.
- *Answer phone calls and emails from those seeking help.
- *Coordinate, train call-forwarding and office volunteers.
- *Manage Inventory
- *Maintain a list of 12-step volunteers
- *Furnish speakers for schools and maintain a speaker list.
- *Maintain our local website.
- *Keep members informed about AA, events, workshops.
- *Respond to requests for info about AA from the public.
- *Produce and publish Meeting directories and other literature.

Individual and Birthday contributions are always welcome! Information on how to contribute can be found in the Lifeline newsletter, on our website oc-aa.org or by calling Central Office at 714-556-4555.

In Love and Service.
